The Call

Jesus chose as his home base the city of Capernaum, a fishing village on the shore of the Sea of Galilee. Jesus encounters the brothers Simon and Andrew, casting a net into the sea. Because Capernaum was a bustling fishing village, the brothers were probably among a large number of fishermen. From that crowd, Jesus sees and calls the two he wants to be his disciples. Not saying whether Jesus had met Simon and Andrew previously, nor whether they had heard his preaching, Matthew draws our attention to the power of Jesus' word and the ideal immediacy of response. Simon and Andrew will continue to be fishermen, Jesus tells them, only their catch from now on will be people. Jesus' words to them are both an invitation and a promise of a new life's work. The next two brothers, James and John, similarly leave everything, even their father Zebedee, again showing the ideal response to Jesus. The four fishermen are leaving all security to follow the uncertain travels of an itinerant rabbi.

The brief summary of Jesus' ministry in the concluding verse tells how he brought light to those dwelling in darkness. His teaching and ministry transformed the darkness of ignorance, the darkness of despair, and the darkness of broken bodies.

Second Collection

Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean lack access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity to this weekend's second collection benefitting the Church in Latin America enables our brothers and sisters in these areas to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous.

Day of Prayer, Worship, & Advocacy—March 25

On the Feast Day of the Annunciation, Catholics from across California will gather at the State Capitol to ignite a faith that serves—a faith rooted in prayer, alive in community, and expressed through action for the common good.

Catholics at the Capitol is a day to unite clergy and laity, families and individuals, in worship and public witness. As Mary said yes to God's call at the Annunciation, we come together to renew our own yes: to serve our neighbors, to uplift human dignity, and to bring faith into the public square with humility and hope.

Throughout the day, participants will take part in:

- A public rally calling us to faithful service
- A prayerful Rosary procession around the Capitol, lifting up our state and its leaders
- The celebration of Holy Mass, grounding our advocacy in worship
- Drop-in visits with legislative offices, offering a respectful, faith-filled presence on issues that affect our communities.

On this sacred feast day, we remember that Mary appears to the world in many forms—Our Lady of Guadalupe, Our Lady of La Vang, Our Lady of Lourdes, Our Lady of Fatima—yet her call is always the same: to trust God and to serve with love. As a mother to all, she blesses all, and all are welcome to participate in this day of prayer and unity.

Whether you come to pray, to walk, to worship, or to advocate, your presence helps ignite a faith that serves—one that transforms hearts and shapes a more just and compassionate society.

Come as you are. Bring your faith. Serve with hope.

Join us on March 25, 2026, and help light the way forward together!

You are invited to explore the questions of aging in light of the Ignatian vision of indifference and "letting go" in a retreat led by Anne Grycz and Mary Romo. The Spirituality of Aging, a non-silent retreat for women and men at the Jesuit Retreat Center of Los Altos, will be on Friday, February 6, 4:00 p.m. through Sunday, February 8, 2:00 p.m. Cost: $320 per person (single or double occupancy.)

How does an elder navigate the prevalent "culture of youth?" Anne and Mary will delve into how diminishment might be an invitation to new, unimagined chapters in one's spiritual journey. Scan the QR Code, above, to register, or click on The Spirituality of Aging.
