495 White Oak Drive
Santa Rosa, CA 95409

We members of Star of the Valley Parish gather around the central act of Catholic worship,
the celebration of active participation in the Mass.
As a Eucharistic centered people, we reach out to heal,
console and listen in the spirit of truth and justice,
with a preferential option for the poor,
thus advancing as individuals and as a community into the image of Christ.

July 18/19, 2026— Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Kingdom of God is Like...

Jesus speaks in several parables today about the reign of God, including images from several groups of people in order to make his message clear to all who hear. The kingdom of God is like a man who sows good seed. The kingdom of God is like a person who plants a mustard seed. The kingdom of God is like a woman who adds yeast to her flour. All of these very human activities bring home the fact that the reign of God is already among us, working in small ways to bring about mysterious but very great results.

Good and evil are allowed to grow together until the end, lest the good be destroyed with the evil. There is a lesson for us here. It is not that we shouldn't oppose evil when we see it, but that in our zeal to make our world perfect by human force, we must be careful not to destroy the work that God is doing. It is not for us, but for God to judge what is to be kept and what destroyed, and even though we think we know the difference, we must be cautious not to disturb God's carefully planted goodness in others. Violence can never be the means of justice.

Small Yet Powerful

Likewise, the reign of God is like something very small, almost unnoticeable until we begin to see the results. The tiny mustard seed, which can be planted by any person (even a child), grows to be a large tree, amazing to all. A tiny amount of yeast, when added to flour, becomes invisible until it begins to make the whole dough rise, doubling or tripling its volume, and becoming bread in the oven's heat.

Let us not judge what we see, but trust that God's work in the world is gentle and quiet, (Small continued inside.)

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Scripture Readings

Reading I: Wisdom 12:13, 16-19—
 God gives repentance for our sins.

Responsorial: Psalms 86—Lord, you are good and forgiving.

Reading II: Romans 8:26-27—The Spirit intercedes for us.

Gospel: Matthew 13:24-30—Let the seeds grow together
 until harvest.

(Small continued.)

the results known only in the final chapter. We seek, in humility, to watch for the Spirit working in the ordinary activities of our lives.

The Mercy, Power, and Love of God

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses!
 God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice
 with love and clemency?

Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

St. Lawrence of Brindisi—July 21

Born in 1559 in Italy, Julius Caesar Russo was taught by Franciscans as a child. After his father died when he was seven, he was sent to live with his uncle in Venice, who was a priest who secured his education with Capuchins.
 Julius joined the Capuchins when he was 16 and took the name Lawrence. He mastered nine languages in addition to his native Italian and read St. Thomas Aquinas, the Fathers of the Church, Jewish Rabbinic literature, and (St. Lawrence continued next column.)

the Bible in all of the original languages. He was known for his deep knowledge, intense spirituality, missionary travels throughout Europe, and eloquent preaching. He died on his 60th birthday, leaving behind multiple volumes of written works that earned him the title Doctor of the Church.

Though St. Lawrence of Brindisi always worked for peace wherever he went, he was asked to be the chaplain of the army of the Holy Roman Empire defending the empire from the Ottoman Turks. St.
 Lawrence led the troops into battle on horseback carrying nothing more than a crucifix, and the army won a decisive victory. Today, buy a new crucifix to carry with you in your pocket, purse, or car. Let it accompany you into your daily battle against sin.

St. Bridget of Sweden—July 23

The daughter of a Swedish governor, Bridget was born in 1302 into a family that descended from Swedish royalty and owned considerable amounts of land. Her mother was very devout and taught Bridget the faith from an early age, and by 7, Bridget was having visions of the Crucifixion. Her mother died when Bridget was 12 and a year later, she was wed in an arranged marriage. Her life as a princess and mother of eight—including St. Catherine of Sweden—didn't distract her from her faith, however. She became a Third Order Franciscan, gave spiritual direction and counsel to many priests, theologians, kings, and popes, and wrote down the mystical visions she continued to have. She eventually renounced her crown and founded the Order of the Most Holy Savior, which is known today as the Bridgettines.

The Bridgettine Order is a monastic order in the Augustinian tradition, and through their lives they work to make Jesus known to all through hospitality and prayer. The Bridgettine Sisters are building a new chapel and retreat house in Columbus, Ohio. Find out more about it, and the Order of the Most Holy Savior, at <https://bridgettines.com> and pray for the success of these sisters and their vocation.

Star of the Valley's AUGUST BUFFET DINNER

Are you missing your fellow parishioners?

Because of lightening damage in April, we haven't been able to gather to visit and enjoy each other.

Mark your calendars for SOV's August Buffet Dinner. The Women's Circle and Men's Club are sponsoring a ham and salad buffet dinner on Saturday, August 1.

Because of the generosity of our pastor and our talented cooks (Karl Turner and Peter Hardy), our previous wine and cheese social is now a delicious ham buffet dinner.

No cost to attend, no reservations and we aren't selling anything.

Please come and reconnect, chat, enjoy and support each other.

Are You Registered Here at Star of the Valley Church?

Some people attending Mass here are surprised to find out that they are not registered as parishioners. After all, they have been attending for years and contributing.

Although not necessary, please note, that if you have never filled out a Registration Form in the office or online, then you are probably not registered as a parishioner. It is alright to be registered at more than one parish. Receiving offertory envelopes is not required.

Did you know that there are benefits to being registered? One of the best is that it makes it easier to obtain any of the Sacraments!

If you are unsure or would like to update your details, please contact the Star of the Valley parish office at 707-539-6262 or email sov@sonic.net. There are forms at the back of church which may be dropped off in our locked mailbox at the Monsignor Fahey Parish Center.

Locked Mailbox at Msgr. Fahey Parish Center

When depositing envelopes into the locked mailbox outside the Msgr. Fahey Parish Center, please push the louvred drop slot at the top. Do not pull on the lower portion to open as this weakens the locking mechanism. Thank you.

NEWS OUTSIDE THE PARISH You Are Not Alone

St. Eugene's Recovery Group offers a faith-filled community for those seeking freedom from addictions, compulsions, and harmful habits through the grace of Jesus Christ and the teachings of the Church. Their next meeting is Wednesday, July 23 at 6:00 p.m. in the Charity Room at the Parish Life Center at St. Eugene's—come as you are, leave with hope. See bulletin board.

The Vine—E-News to the Pews

The weekly publication, called The Vine, is available for you to receive by email. It is sent each Tuesday from the Diocese of Santa Rosa (mail@flocknote.com) and contains news and events from different diocesan departments, schools, and parishes.
